Application Instructions & Information

- 2025 season Wildfire Assistance Applications are to be received to ICA office no later than October 31, 2025. Mail to: Idaho Cattle Association, PO Box 15397, Boise, ID 83715
- Qualifying entities or individuals:
 - ICA members and local associations
 - Cattle producers
 - Rural Fire Protection Associations (RFPA)
 - Volunteer Fire Departments or similar organizations

- Individuals or others that provided assistance, resources or funds to fight 2025 wildfires which caused losses or threatened cattle producer's livestock, property or resources.
- Assistance funds were received by ICA as private donations (no public funds).
- Most wildfire assistance funds will be awarded at levels between $1,000- $4,000.
- Assistance applications (with supporting documentation) will be considered for reimbursement of expenses or losses incurred by individuals or entities as a direct result of wildfires in Idaho counties for claims which have not been or are not expected to be covered by the reimbursement of another program or source such as property insurance or FSA Emergency Conservation Program (ECP) cost share program.
- Assistance applications will be considered for incurred expenses or losses suffered from:
 - a) Emergency feed, transport, or pasturing,
 - b) Fencing loss,
 - c) Infrastructure loss,
 - d) Seeding cost,
 - e) Assistance provided to producers for wildfire related costs,
 - f) Supplies & materials used, which are to be replaced, or
 - g) Other losses or expenses as described by applicant.
- The procedure for reviewing applications received, as well as review of applicant's supporting documentation, and issuing disbursements to qualified applicants will be determined by ICA's Board of Directors. This committee will determine if the application meets program criteria, as well as award amounts. The wildfire fund may not be sufficient to meet all requests and may be prorated between applicants at the committee's discretion.
- Any questions may be directed to Cameron Mulrony, ICA Executive Vice President, at (208)343-1615 or cameron@idahocattle.org.
