The Idaho Cattle Association Leadership Attends Public Lands Council Annual Meeting

BOISE, Idaho – The Idaho Cattle Association (ICA) recently sent staff and leadership to attend the Public Lands Council Annual Meeting, held in Cody, Wyoming from August 25- August 26th. Mark Pratt- ICA President, Jerry Wroten- ICA Vice President, Cameron Mulrony- ICA Executive Vice President, and Karen Williams- ICA Natural Resources & Policy Director were in attendance. Additionally, Idaho Public Lands Council Board members Jared Brackett and Charlie Lyons attended the meeting.

The annual meeting, held for the first time since 2019, featured a trade show, sessions on a variety of topics, hosted speakers from the cattle industry & political arenas, and afforded attendees the opportunity to participate in committee meetings & networking events.

The Public Lands Council works to support and maintain livestock grazing on public lands by advocating for and educating decision makers to the many values livestock grazing contributes to our natural resources and to the public.

The Idaho Cattle Association works to preserve, promote, and protect Idaho's cattle industry and its volunteer leadership from across the state is a critical part in achieving this mission and hearing the voices of the industry. ICA will hold its annual member meeting November 14-16, 2022 in Sun Valley, Idaho.
